

Part A

The screenshot shows a split-screen interface. The top half is the Supabase CC Lab1 dashboard, and the bottom half is a terminal window.

Supabase CC Lab1 Dashboard:

- Project API: Your API is secured behind an API gateway which requires an API Key for every request. You can use the parameters below to use Supabase client libraries.
- Project URL: https://uwjydnawzyusckusdenu.supabase.co (Copy)
- Publishable API Key: sb_publishable_BBzESN7tjwhX5Np7kGcInw_8LDsDC9p (Copy)

Terminal:

Part C

The screenshot shows a GitHub repository interface. At the top, there's a header with a dropdown for 'master', a branch count of '1 Branch', a tag count of '0 Tags', a search bar labeled 'Go to file', and buttons for 'Add file', 'Code', and a copy icon.

The repository details show the owner 'MrAstatine' and the name 'PES1UG23AM036'. It has '252c78b · now' and '2 Commits'.

The file list includes 'README.md', 'index.html', and 'styles.css', all updated 'now' by 'PES1UG23AM036'.

The 'README' file is currently selected, displaying its content:

A basic html/css template for web concentration portfolio 1 students

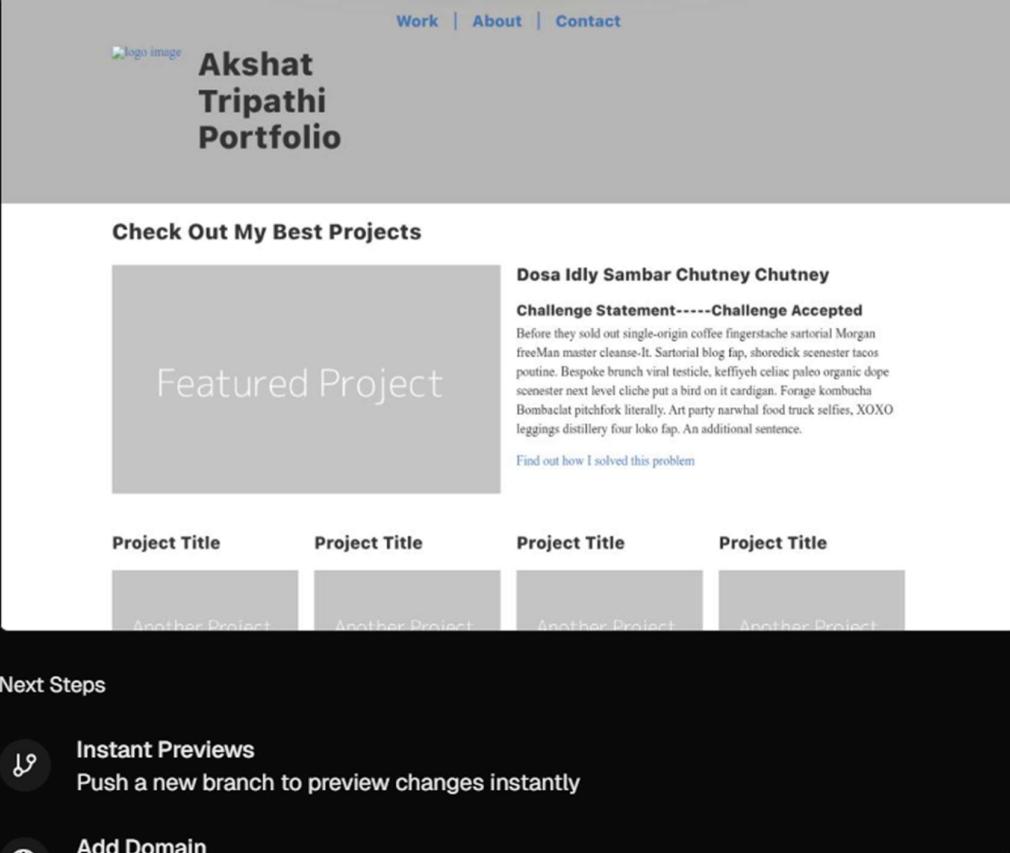

Download this template and use it to build a simple portfolio website. There are lots of comments in the code to explain what is doing what, plus I have made a google presentation that will walk you through some of the things you need to do. Those slides can be found here:

Using this template requires a basic understanding of HTML and CSS

Congratulations!

You just deployed a new project to  Akshat Tripathi's projects.
